

DAY OF THANKSGIVING FOR THE PRESIDENT.

A reporter who interviewed several of the prominent clergymen of different creeds in the city has found them unanimous in the belief that a day be set apart for general prayer and rejoicing for the recovery of the President.

It is suggested that "President's Day" at the Buffalo Fair be selected for the national thanksgiving.

"Good! Good!" exclaimed the venerable Rabbi Gustave Gottheil, enthusiastically. "I heartily favor a day set apart to call the people to a sense of the great debt they owe to their God for sparing their chief servant. I am and have been a great admirer of McKinley, but this is not an occasion when we are called upon to celebrate McKinley's goodness and eminence."

"It was not Mr. McKinley but the President of our people who was saved by the assassin," said the man McKinley who was attacked, but the fundamentalists of our Government represented in the person of the President. I am strongly in favor of holding the day as a national day of jubilation and rejoicing."

QUOTES MR. MCKINLEY.

Rev. Father Alexander P. Doyle, of the Church of the Paulist Fathers, quoted this sentence from an address delivered by Mr. McKinley at Cleveland shortly after the anarchist's mad restoration of 1894: and just after New York had sent Herr Most and Emma Goldman to the penitentiary:

"With patriotism in our hearts and the flag of our country in our hands, there is no danger of anarchy."

Said Father Doyle earnestly: "McKinley himself in that brief sentence sounded the keynote for the people of this country and for the lawmakers in the present crisis, for the converse surely is that 'with anarchy in their hearts and weapons in their hands these aliens to our institutions are traitors and dangerous,' and I trust the laws will be amended so that an assault upon the President will be treason, punishable by life imprisonment, and that some measure will be framed under which anarchy will be recognized as sufficient ground for exclusion and expulsion from the country."

"I feel sure that all our people will second the motion for a day of thanksgiving for the President's recovery, for I think that McKinley's recovery can be attributed very largely to the prayers that have gone up from beseeching souls all over the country. McKinley is very close to the hearts of the people. He is a true Christian man and the people honor him. The people feel that his striking down was a crime against them, against the

Prominent Clergymen Heartily Indorse Suggestion that a Day Be Set Aside for National Thanksgiving.

"AN EXCELLENT IDEA."

Rev. E. de Sola Mendes said:

"An excellent idea which should commend itself to every citizen. I don't recall anything that has so touched the hearts of the whole people. As for prayer, Saturday comes before Sunday in the calendar, and in every Jewish synagogue there were prayers offered just one day before the Christian's prayers were offered. Our holidays are coming on. Saturday, the New Year, by custom will be given up to retrospection, and in ninety-nine out of every hundred synagogues Jewish preachers will speak of the disaster which befell the life of the chosen chief officer of the people. The whole Jewish sentiment is against anarchy."

"The family life side of Mr. McKinley's character appeals very strongly to the Jewish people. The people must arise in their majesty and with their thanksgiving and their prayers and their celebration they must stamp out this monster of disorder and anarchy."

"MOST APPROPRIATE."

Rev. Dr. Frank E. Hamdell, of the Congregational Church of the Pilgrims, said:

"There has never been a time when such a celebration has been more appropriate. In every great crisis of the national history, the people have been moved by a common impulse to the recognition of God in supplications or thanksgiving."

"Never in a time of peace have the American people been so profoundly stirred as during the past week, and in gathering together for a common purpose of prayer and thanks offering they would be acting in complete sympathy with the strong and beautiful faith illustrated by our President and his wife."

"The time is now come when the American principles must be clearly defined and stern and final action taken with reference to those who preach or even oppose to all government."

"I heartily indorse the plan for a day of jubilation throughout the land, and should Director-General Milburn fix a 'President's Day' at the Exposition, that day might be chosen for the general thanksgiving."

DR. KOHLER'S VIEWS.

Dr. Kaufmann Kohler, of Temple Beth-El, said:

"I go without saying that we as individuals will offer up prayers of thanksgiving for the full way in which our prayers to God have been answered. Now that the Hebrew holidays are coming on, we shall offer prayers for the President's complete restoration to health."

"I believe that a common day should be set apart for general prayer and thanksgiving. This tragedy and the national thanksgiving suggested will unite as a brotherly church and classes and that is enough for rejoicing."

"It will give us the opportunity to declare our allegiance to and our implicit faith in the power of the word of the law for which in his direct hour of need the President was so confident."

FAVORS "PRESIDENT'S DAY."

Dr. Willis P. Oddy, of Calvary Methodist Episcopal Church, said:

"It could be eminently appropriate to give recognition to God's mercies by a great national day of thanksgiving for the recovery of the President, and I agree with the suggestion that it should be a week day."

"A day should be set apart, by all means. Not only because it is an expression of gratitude to the Almighty for sparing our President's life, but also because all men of the pulpit or in public station, ought to give expression to their abhorrence and complete disavowal of Anarchism and of all movements that aim to set man against man and subvert the foundations of civilization."

"We must say to all the world that we will not tolerate any more to come here to share our opportunities who will do us wrong as Americans. This should be not only a thanksgiving but a public protest against Anarchy."

WOULD CHANGE LAWS.

Rev. Richard Hartley, of Hope Baptist Church, said:

"There is everything to be said in favor of the suggestion. With the President out of danger the people of the United States certainly have reason enough for a day of thanks-giving. There is no difference among Christian ministers as to McKinley, whatever their politics may be. All at him as a President of the whole people. I should favor laws making an assault on the President treason punishable by death, for it is an assault upon the country itself."

Rev. Dr. H. M. Warren, of the Central Park Baptist Church, said:

"We have had two prayer services for the recovery of the President in my church, and I shall be very glad to believe that God answers prayer. It is most that we should pray for his recovery last Friday night. It is just surprising to me that he should recover. For this response to those prayers I think a day of thanksgiving meeting held on a big Carnegie Hall soon would be joined in heartily by Catholics, Protestants, Jews and Gentiles. All but Anarchists would join."

STOLEN LITTLE ONE FOUND IN EVIL SPOT.

Pretty Nellie Nordrofski Lay Unconscious and Bleeding in an Ill-Omened Wood—Fully Identified.

Brained, cut and unconscious, and perhaps even more seriously injured, the little Nellie Nordrofski, the pretty three-year-old child who was kidnapped yesterday from in front of her home at No. 118 Grand street, Williamsburg, was found this morning in Phillips' Wood, at Shorewood Bay by John Lawson, a car starter who lives at Avenue D and East Tenth street.

The locality where the child was found is infested with vicious characters. Low whites and negroes congregate there together, and no wayfarer's life would be safe in the vicinity after dark.

Covered with Bruises.

Lawson was going to work at 6 A. M. when he stumbled upon the child's senseless body. She was breathing faintly, but her face was covered with blood from bruises and cuts. Part of her clothing, also bloody, lay on the ground near her.

The child's hair was light and flaxen and her eyes big and blue. She wore a black and white check dress, trimmed with black braid, and buttoned shoes. She wore no hat.

Lawson took the girl home and his wife washed and revived her. All she could say was that her name was Nellie. Pullman Street was also taken her first to the station-house and then to the Emergency Hospital, where she is now.

Not Sure of Assault.

Dr. Fish examined the child, but said he was not sure yet of the extent of her injuries. A more complete examination is to be made in the morning by a man whose name of the child's father has not been ascertained.

The police sent word to Mrs. Nordrofski, and from the description she said the child was surely her own. The little one, she started at once for Coney Island.

The little girl, who is unusually pretty, with flaxen hair and large, blue eyes, was taken from the street in front of her home at 11 o'clock yesterday morning by a man whose name of the child's father has not been ascertained.

Little Helen was playing in front of her home when the strange man, Mrs. Polak and another Polish woman, both of whom live at No. 118 Grand street, saw him stop and carry the little girl. They supposed he was some friend of the family and paid no attention to him when he picked her up and carried her around the corner into Berry street. Nothing more was seen of them, and when Mrs. Nordrofski grew alarmed during the afternoon they told her of the stranger.

Last night Mrs. Nordrofski notified the police. Capt. Short and twelve of his men, aided by several Polish interpreters, scoured the neighborhood, but their search did not reveal any trace of the child or her abductor.

The man, who is about thirty years old, with black hair and mustache and a dark complexion. He was well dressed in a black suit of clothes and black hat.

The child's aunt reached the Emergency Hospital at 10 A. M. and identified her. She will be taken home as soon as she has told the police all she can about her abductor.

KRUGER'S SON SURRENDERS.

LORD KITCHENER SENDS THE NEWS TO LONDON OFFICE.

Capt. Ferreira Has Also Given Himself Up to the British Soldiers.

LONDON, Sept. 12.—A despatch from Lord Kitchener, dated Pretoria, today announces that C. Kruger, a son of the President of the Transvaal, and Capt. Ferreira have surrendered.

CHADOCK, Cape Colony, Sept. 12.—Nine girls, whose ages ranged from 17 to 20, and a married woman, a man have been tried for supplying food to and harboring the King's enemies. Eight of them were sentenced to thirty days' imprisonment and two were discharged.

Lord Kitchener has sent King Edward, as Colonel-in-Chief of the Gordon Highlanders, an account of an incident that strongly recalls the storming of Dargat Heights by that regiment.

Lord Kitchener says that, after surrendering, Commandant De Villiers informed him that during the Boer attack of July 4 on Watson-Spruit, the Highlanders behaved with the utmost gallantry.

The last four men, though completely surrounded and without cover, continued to fire until three were killed and the fourth was wounded.

"On the Boers asking the survivor the reason why they had not surrendered he replied, 'Why, man, we are Gordon Highlanders.'"

FORTY INJURED IN WEST SHORE WRECK.

Chicago Limited on the West Shore Ran Into Open Switch Near Syracuse.

THE INJURED.

Barton, David, of Syracuse.
Pearson, David, engineer, of Syracuse.
Toole, Thomas, fireman of Syracuse.
Thi, J. P., of Syracuse.
Thirty-six others, cut and bruised.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Sept. 12.—The locomotive and five cars of the Chicago Limited on the West Shore Railroad, westbound, were thrown from the track by a misplaced switch three miles east of Syracuse at 2:50 o'clock this morning.

That no one was killed is remarkable, for the cars turned over in a ditch at the side of the track. Only four of the injured were taken to the hospital. The rest were able to go to their homes, in this city.

The train was running about forty miles an hour when the accident occurred. Engineer Pearson had no warning, as the switch appeared to be all right.

He and his fireman were pinned down by the wreckage in the end of the locomotive and were scalded by escaping steam.

A mail car, a baggage car and three day coaches left the track. The day coaches were crowded with Foresters of this city returning from a convention at Newburg. The Pullman cars remained on the track and none of their occupants was injured.

All of the ambulances in this city were sent to the wreck, and the doctors had their hands full attending to the injured. The wreck tied up traffic on the West Shore until late this morning.

WALLACH'S HATS BETTER THAN EVER.

The Same Low Prices Prevail at Their Three Stores.

Now that the "straw-hat" season is drawing to a close, the tasteful assortment of men's derbies, dignities, etc., in the new fall shapes displayed in Wallach's three stores is bound to interest the man seeking a stylish hat at a low price.

This year the fall models will be better than ever, and include all the fashionable blocks, in addition to many exclusive designs of their own, at figures to place them within easy reach.

The three stores are conveniently located and easy of access from all points—Lower near Prince, Eighth St., near 1st, and Third Ave., corner 12th St.

In addition to their enormous hat stock, the latest novelties in men's furnishings are shown at prices to tempt the most sceptical.
